

CRN® Honors Synopsys, Inc. With 5-Star Rating in 2022 Partner Program Guide

The Synopsys Software Integrity Group Partner Program achieved its goal of doubling the partner business in FY21 and is well on a path to continue that trend in FY22

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif., March 28, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- Synopsys, Inc. (Nasdaq: SNPS), a recognized leader in application security, today announced its global partner program is being celebrated by CRN®, a brand of The Channel Company, with a prestigious 5-star rating in its 2022 Partner Program Guide.

CRN's annual Partner Program Guide provides a definitive list of the most notable partner programs from industry-leading technology vendors that provide innovative products and flexible services through the IT channel. The 5-star rating is achieved only by select vendors that deliver the best of the best, going above and beyond in their partner programs to help push growth and positive change.

Synopsys partners with the technology industry's leading organizations to create joint customer value. Through these partnerships, customers receive application security solutions they need without impacting their application development and deployment efforts. Additionally, by partnering with key solution providers across the globe, the Synopsys Software Integrity Group helps customers build trust in their software. These partners resell Synopsys solutions as well as deliver joint application security solutions, integrate them into DevSecOps workflows, and help ensure an optimal customer experience. Working with an authorized Synopsys solution provider partner helps ensure a streamlined procurement experience, peace of mind, and smooth execution of cloud migration and digital transformation projects.

"Software risk equates to business risk. We endeavor to help our customers mitigate this risk which is why we've partnered with Synopsys, the leader in AppSec testing," said Peter Anzelmo, business development director at Electro Source. "A fundamental challenge that organizations face involves the complexities of managing risks associated with software and its impact on the broader organization. Our partnership with Synopsys enables our customers, partners, and prospects access to the Synopsys Software Integrity Group to help secure their software supply chain, build security into DevOps, and create a holistic application security program."

Since announcing the new partner program in April of 2021, the Synopsys Software Integrity Group has delivered on its promise to enhance all aspects of engaging with partners. Compensation Neutrality was launched shortly after along with a new and innovative pricing model that rewards partners based on the level of engagement and investment. A new partner portal was launched over the past summer making it easier for partners to access training and enablement materials, sales tools, deal registration, marketing materials including self-service demand generation campaign kits, and more. The program also saw the addition of new partners in every region leveraging the broad solution set available to them to sell or build services based on Synopsys technology.

"We're thrilled to be honored with a 5-star rating in CRN's Partner Program Guide," said Tom Herrmann, vice president of global channels and alliances within the Synopsys Software Integrity Group. "Expanding our business through the channel is one of our top strategic priorities. We constantly look at ways to enhance our program and make it as easy as possible for our partners to engage with us. This recognition by CRN validates the work we've done to enable our partners thus far, and signals to the continued momentum and growth we expect by further extending our world-class application security solutions through the channel moving forward."
